Steamer Columbia in Collision with San Pedro off California Coast

SANK IN FIVE MINUTES

One Hundred Drowned, Eighty Saved by Clinging to the San Pedro

SPECIAL TO THE DISPATCH:

San Francisco, July 22: The passenger steamer Columbia, bound north from this port for Portland, collided with the lumber steamer San Pedro off Cove, Mendocino county, today. There was a heavy fog at the time and the San Pedro, which was heavily laden with lumber, struck the Columbia on the port bow with such terrible force that she was cut down to the water and sank in about five minutes. About one hundred people sank with her to a watery grave and the rest, numbering about eighty, were saved by clinging to the San Pedro, from which vessel they were rescued some hours later by the steamer Roanoke.

CAUSE GREAT HAVOC

Wind and Rain Do Much Damage in Wisconsin.

TORNADO VISITS VIROQUA

Communication Cut Off and Extent of Damage Unknown—Severe Storm in North Dakota Injures Many Persons and Destroys Buildings.

La Crosse, Wis., July 22.—A serious tornado south of here in the vicinity of Viroqua, is reported here. Telephonic communication in all directions is cut off and the wires are down.

Serious washouts occurred on all five railroads entering La Crosse and traffic is nearly at a standstill.

The wind, rain and electrical storm which raged in this territory for several hours was the most severe in years. The Mississippi river rose over a foot.

It is feared here that loss of life and serious damage will develop when communication with the surrounding country is re-established.

Rain is falling in torrents. Grain fields were leveled and the damage to crops will be enormous.

Dispatches from Sparta, Wis., say that one of the heaviest storms that ever visited that section washed out several hundred feet of the Sparta and Viroqua railroad near Cashton and also near Melvina and destroyed the high bridge of the St. Paul road at Sparta. No trains have been able to pass Sparta since Sunday noon.

Three bridges in Sparta are gone and many in the country south of that city are destroyed. There has been much damage to crops. Lightning struck the Sparta postoffice and McCoy's mill, and the latter was considerably damaged by fire.

Rain also washed out the tracks of the main lines of the Northwestern, the Milwaukee and the Burlington roads at Winona, Minn. Through Chicago trains on these roads are tied up there. The Northwestern and the Burlington roads were washed out at Lytle's and several hundred feet of the Milwaukee track is out at Dakota.

MANY PERSONS INJURED.

Severe Storm Does Great Damage at Williston, N. D.

Williston, N. D., July 22.—Williston had the worst storm in years. The storm lasted about thirty minutes, with rain and hail. Nearly all of what is known as West Lawn was blown away. Many houses under construction were blown down and the timbers were scattered all over town.

About twenty-five persons have been reported injured so far, two so seriously that they are not expected to live, a man named Holmes and a woman by the name of Collinson. Mrs. Collinson and baby were blown out of their house about 100 yards, landing against a wire fence. The house was destroyed.

About fifteen dwellings were totally destroyed, most of them small buildings.

All the eads and hacks in town were kept on the run after the storm abated taking physicians to the injured. People having cellars made use of them when they saw timbers flying in all directions.

It is not known yet what damage was done in the country, but it is feared that a great many suffered who had only a shack to live in. North and east of here got much hail.

SHOOTS THREE PERSONS.

Jealous Kentuckian Uses a Gun With Deadly Effect.

Harrodsburg, Ky., July 22.—"Buster" Phillips, a city workhouse keeper, shot his wife four times and then turned the weapon on Mrs. Kyle Watkins, his sister-in-law. He then shot Thomas Sillee, aged eighteen.

Phillips is forty years old and for some time has suspected his eighteen-year-old wife of being too intimate with Sillee.

It is thought he shot Mrs. Watkins for allowing his wife and Sillee to meet at her home. Both Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Watkins are in a serious condition.

QUIET NOW PREVAILS

Disturbances in Korean Capital Have Ceased.

FURTHER TROUBLE FEARED

Influx of People From the Country Causes Uneasiness and Fresh Riots Are Apprehended—Deposed Emperor Said to Be Intriguing.

Tokio, July 22.—It is reported from Seoul that the retired emperor refused to acknowledge his complete noninterference with the new administration, insisting that the new emperor was only his proxy. He was prevailed upon to withdraw from his position and to consent to the inauguration of a new epoch with a new name in accordance with usage. Pak Yon Ho was reappointed household minister and Yilo Choi, chief chamberlain, has been arrested with the arrival of the new emperor, on suspicion of inciting riot.

The latest advices from Seoul indicate that apparent calm prevailed Sunday afternoon, but the constant influx of people from the country was causing some uneasiness. Fresh riots were apprehended at any moment.

The ministers proceeded to the palace where the guards were doubled and discussed the question of establishing a separate palace for the late emperor in accordance with usage. It is believed that Marquis Ito soon will have an audience with the new emperor, when an arrangement will be made as to the place Japan will take in the conduct of Korean affairs.

JAPS ARE AGITATED.

Reports About the Deposed Emperor of Korea Worry Them.

Seoul, July 22.—The Japanese are agitated by a multiplicity of reports of the ex-emperor's intrigues since his abdication July 19. Military anxiety has been, therefore, revived by the aggravation of the political situation.

The disturbing factors are first, the enigmatical presence in Seoul of Japanese Foreign Minister Hayashi, whose mission is believed by the people to have been the abdication of the former emperor and his removal to Japan; second, domiciliary contact with the emperor and control and manipulation of the throne through the ex-emperor.

Until July 19 the throne and court were prostrate, with the emperor groveling before the residency general.

Today the residency claims that with this at an end it will be able to combat the intrigue of the ex-emperor.

The situation is such already that Japan is not able to establish any interpretation of it whatsoever and unless Hayashi's mission and Tokio's intentions are declared through Marquis Ito to the nation, the Korean throne will easily dash itself to pieces.

Marquis Ito's ability to temper the fate of Korea is virtually unknown.

Three ministers are now with the emperor deliberating over the situation.

Some Outward Improvement.

There is some outward improvement in the situation and General Hasegawa, commander of the Japanese troops in Korea, withdrew one of the machine guns from Palace Square. He regards the situation as well in hand. The two government arsenals are guarded by Japanese soldiers, although the number is not large and they are under orders to explode the magazines if they find themselves unable to defend them.

The Korean troops are frequently harangued by civilian agitators who take up their stand at the entrance to the barracks. The Koreans possess 90,000 rounds of ammunition, of which General Hasegawa, who has only 2,300 troops in Seoul, has been unable to demand the surrender.

The Ping Yang regiment, which was reported as having been disarmed, still refuses to surrender its arms or ammunition.

The Japanese commander is not yet able to assure safety in the streets, but he is making the best possible use of his men, while awaiting reinforcements that are now on their way from Shimoda.

Marquis Ito, the resident general at Seoul, will not consent to the enforcement of martial law, but he is re-garrisoning the country as far as possible as a precaution.

The new emperor's first edict orders the punishment of the Korean deputation to The Hague.

Only Way to Secure Peace.

New York, July 22.—"Knowing as I do the Korean temperament and the policy that Japan has pursued in the peninsula, I am able to predict that Japan will secure peace there only by the declaration of the people," said Mr. Homer B. Hurlburt, for several years a confidential advisor to the deposed emperor of Korea.

PITTSBURG MAY LOSE TITLE

May No Longer Be Known as the "Smoky City."

Pittsburg, July 22.—Pittsburg, known throughout the world as the "Smoky City," is in a fair way to lose that title by reason of the activity in enforcing an ordinance against the smoke nuisance.

The first report of the "smoke in specter" has just been issued.

William H. Rea, the inspector, says his department was not able to get into action before June 15, but that since then 442 plants have been visited and there appears to have been a general response to the movement to get rid of the smoke.

Huge stacks that formerly emitted black clouds of smoke seem to be idle but on close observation a thin grey cloud may be discerned drifting away into space. And all this has been accomplished by the station, for no prosecutions have been brought and Inspector Rea has announced that none will be unless there is a most flagrant violation of the ordinance.

SHOWER OF MOLTEN METAL

Seriously Burns Five Men and Slightly Injures Several Others.

Pittsburg, July 22.—Caught under a shower of molten metal at the Home steel works, five men were seriously burned, two perhaps fatally while many others received minor injuries. The men were tapping a furnace when a big ladle containing tons of molten metal was tipped over.

IN DEFENSE OF HAYWOOD

Argument Begun by Attorney for Accused Man.

Boise, Ida., July 22.—Argument in defense of William D. Haywood has commenced and for the next two or three days E. F. Richardson and Clarence Darrow will plead for the life of their client. Mr. Richardson expects to speak eight or ten hours. It is probable, therefore, that Mr. Darrow will not commence his closing argument before Wednesday morning.

The last word will come from Senator Borah, who will speak probably on Friday, closing up the state's side of the case. Judge Wood will charge the jury on Friday afternoon or more likely on Saturday morning, and a verdict is expected by Saturday night. Opinion is divided as to the probable result.

The decision of Judge Wood taking from the jury all evidence relating to deportations in Colorado and the employment of detectives to harass the Western Federation of Miners, constituting the showing by the defense of a counter conspiracy on the part of the mine owners, has limited the arguments of the defense to the evidence introduced by the state corroborative of Orchard and to the impeachment of Orchard by the defense.

Mr. Richardson will take the position that his client, Haywood, had not been connected with any of the crimes to which Orchard has confessed and that the alleged co-conspirator has not been corroborated as required by the law of conspiracy. This will involve a review of all the evidence from the period of trouble in the Coeur d'Alene district of Idaho in 1899 down to the murder of Steunenberg by Orchard in 1905. He will present the legal side of the position of the defense at every point and disassociate Haywood and the Western Federation from all knowledge of or participation in the crimes in which Orchard earned the title of "Boss Killer."

Says Orchard Was Not There.

Mr. Richardson will argue from the evidence that Orchard was not present at the blowing up of the concentrator at the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine in 1899 and that therefore his evidence in this matter is impeached and worthless. He will argue that the explosion at the Vindicator mine in Colorado and the killing of Beck and McCormick was an accident with which Orchard had no connection—that the blowing up of the Independence depot in Colorado, where fourteen men were killed, was the result of a scheme to create public feeling against the striking miners, and that the killing of the nonunion miners was not intentional; that Orchard had no connection with it or if he had that Haywood had no knowledge before hand of what was going on.

The killing of Lyte Gregory in Denver, Mr. Richardson will lay to the door of personal enemies of Gregory, who were engaged in strike-breaking. The Goddard and Gabbert bombs, concerning which so much has been said, will not be considered by the defense as seriously bearing on the case, but at the same time it will be argued that if such bombs were planted the Western Federation of Miners had nothing to do with them. The same disavowal of connection will be argued as to the Bradley explosion and the Steunenberg murder itself.

From first to last Mr. Richardson will take the ground that Orchard having foully murdered Steunenberg, has woven the members of the West-

The character of our sale

The beauty of our clearance sale is that we are offering the most desirable things there is to be had in dry goods. Our stock is kept "clean" and when we advertise a sale of this character you are not asked to buy relics of past seasons. You are offered the best. Look up our Friday advertisement and come for for some of the bargains.

"MICHAEL'S"

Note our Table Linen Bargains

Were we to go thru the best markets today we could not duplicate our table linen bargains. Could we continue to secure the present patterns we would not offer them at the prices that we do but since we cannot "sort up" patterns after the present stock is gone, we give bargains spelled with a big B.

"MICHAEL'S"

Basement Bargains are popular

Our sales were 40 per cent ahead of any day since we opened the Bargain Basement on Saturday. This speaks so well of the bargains we have to offer there that we believe you should see what is selling.

ern Federation into his story at the behest of Captain James McLaughlin of the Pinkerton detective agency and Governor Gooding of Idaho, under promise of immunity.

As the end of the case approaches, the town of Boise is even more excited than it has been at any other time during the trial. Most of the witnesses have been paid off and dismissed, but many people are coming from long distances to hear the arguments. This is especially true of members of the bar from neighboring states.

IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Physician Burned to Death and His Fiancee Injured.

New York, July 22.—Dr. Edward J. Gallagher, a New York physician, was burned to death in an automobile accident on Long Island, while his fiancée, who accompanied him, was perhaps fatally injured. Dr. Gallagher, accompanied by Miss Helen Madigan, was driving his machine over the Locust avenue crossing of the Long Island railroad in Jamaica, L. I., when the car was struck a glancing blow by the Narragansett flyer, a fast passenger train.

The machine was thrown a considerable distance and turned over upon its occupants. A moment later the gasoline tank exploded and shot the burning oil over the half stunned motorists.

One Dead From Heat.

St. Louis, July 22.—One death and five prostrations were reported Sunday night as caused by the heat. Two of those prostrated are not expected to live.

HUSBAND DEAD; WIFE DYING

Two Others Injured in an Automobile Accident.

Pittsburg, July 22.—John J. Wallace, business man of this city, is dead with a broken neck, his wife is dying at her home with internal injuries and J. S. Henner and wife, friends of the Wallaces, are in a serious condition as a result of an accident to their motor car, which plunged over a 100-foot embankment on the road to Butler.

About five miles out from this city the chauffeur stopped the car to inquire the direction to Butler. The car started without apparent cause and the chauffeur jumped upon the side step of the machine, but before he could get control the machine leaped over the embankment and landed in a big tree.

THE SURPRISE OF THE SEASON

The Large L. M. Koop Store too Small for the Saturday Crowds

NEVER SUCH A SALE BEFORE

Everybody Surprised and Delighted at the Grand Offerings

All who attended the L. M. Koop $20,000.00 cut price sale Saturday were amply repaid by the money saving opportunities on every purchase. At this time of the year there are so little things necessary to the pleasure and dress of the wife, mother and daughter, and it is these small things with a genuine saving on each is what counts. In this grand unmatched sale of L. M. Koop you will find pins at 1c a paper and proportionate reductions all through the laces, ribbons, hosiery, corsets, Jerseys, wrappers, linens, lawns, organdies and silk. Every suit, skirt or jacket is cut to less than factory cost and all this means a saving of hundreds of dollars to the consumers of Brainerd and surrounding country. The object of this sale is to distribute all seasonable goods among the public, let the ladies, misses and children enjoy the wear and use of these nice summer things and not carry them over to next season and then make a profit on them as is the custom of all other Dry Goods houses. The L. M. Koop management declare themselves ready and willing to continue this No Profit Sale all of this week and every low price that was offered Saturday will continue in force all this week if the quantities of certain lines of goods will be sufficient. Any lines closed out will not be filled in again this year and to say the goods are moving fast is not fully expressing the busy condition of affairs at this L. M. Koop special sale, so come early if you wish to avail yourself of sizes and assortments. You never again will enjoy such nice stylish seasonable merchandise in dry goods, shoes, notions and tailor made garments as this grand sale offers you all this week.

Everybody concedes the L. M. Koop sale to be the "best sale in town."

UP TO THE LUMBERMEN.

Must Choose Between Car Shortage
and Higher Rates.

Seattle, Wash., July 22.—President
Louis Hill of the Great Northern railway has declared that the lumbermen of the coast must choose between a continuation of the car shortage and the advance of 10 cents per hundred pounds on lumber and shingle shipments that will be applied Aug. 1.
President Hill says his road had sent 4,000 empty cars to the coast to haul lumber products this summer, banking the empties from the Dakotas and Montana.

"The westbound traffic," he said,
"will not supply cars enough for the lumber business. We cannot haul empties here at a loss and if we must supply cars for the lumber traffic we must be paid for it. I understand that the lumbermen propose to fight against the increase in rates before the interstate commerce commission.
I do not believe they can win and I think the millmen are short-sighted.
We must either advance the lumber rates or allow the car shortage to continue. As a matter of fact, if we supplied all the cars the lumbermen say they want the market would be depressed by the heavy shipments.
Right now when we have plenty of cars out here the lumber market has slumped and many mills are closed."

VESSEL KEELS OVER.

Accident to North German Lloyd
Steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Bremen, Germany, July 22.—
The North German Lloyd steamer
Kaiser Wilhelm II., while coaling suddenly listed. The water poured into her bunkers and boiler compartments through the open coal ports and the vessel careened and lay on her side on the bottom. When the tide was low her bow rested on a bank, but with the rising of the tide she slipped from that position and keeled over.

The first impression was that strikers had damaged the vessel in some manner in order to cause the accident, but the company's officers after an investigation affirmed that this is incorrect and that the accident occurred as described.

After some delay the steam pumps were set to work to free the vessel of water. The cabin do not appear to be much damaged as little water reached them but the ship cannot be ready to sail, the company announces, for several days.

Meanwhile the Kaiser Wilhelm's full list of passengers for Tuesday's sailing must be transferred to other liners.

TOURNAMENT WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Riverside Gun Club Shoot Sunday Was Very Much Enjoyed by Participants

MANY GOOD SCORES MADE

New Scheme of Division of Money Gave Perfect Satisfaction to Everybody

The tournament held Sunday by the Riverside gun club was one of the most satisfactory events of the kind ever pulled off. Everyone went home satisfied. The division of the money in the various events was on a new system evolved by President Geo. Trent and the scheme proved a decided success. Instead of giving the high gun in each event the big end of the purse, the club reversed it, dividing the money in all events 20, 23, 27 and 30 per cent. As in nearly every event the second, third and fourth monies were divided among an increasing number of men, so that the high man got more than any one of the others, but the money was divided among a larger number of shooters, thus giving the poorer ones a better chance. The entrance fee was $1.10 in the ten bird events and $1.15 in the fifteen bird events with $3 added for the ten bird events and $5 for the fifteen bird events. Messrs. J. D. L. Morrison, representing the U. M. C. cartridge company, and H. C. Hershey, representing the Winchester Arms company, were present and shot but were not eligible to compete for money or prizes. The tabulated score of the various events is as follows:

No. of Event	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	Tot.
No. of birds	10	15	15	10	15	15	10	15	15	15	15	150

WAS JOHN GILLIS A SUICIDE?

Body Found by Boys in the Mississippi River Near Laurel Street Bridge

HE HAD BEEN DESPONDENT

Too Old to Work and Ashamed to Become Dependent on His Married Daughters

The body of John Gillis, for many years a resident of this city, was found in the Mississippi river near the Laurel street bridge Saturday evening by a party of boys. Curtis Bolton and Jimmie Hallett, together with a couple of smaller boys were playing around the river and saw the body, which was floating face down, out in the stream. Young Bolton got a pick pole and waded out until he could reach the body and pulled it ashore, after which one of the boys came up and notified the chief of police and the coroner. These gentlemen went down and took the body from the water and brought it to town. It had been in the water only about a day, it is thought, and was at once recognized.

W. H. Bolton, who was well acquainted with Mr. Gillis states that he had been very despondent for some time. He has two or three married daughters, both of whom were anxious to have him make his home with them, they being well off. He was addicted to drink, however, and was ashamed to go to their home or let them know that he was in need. He had not been at work for about a week at the time of his disappearance, and as he was irregular in his habits he had not been missed up to the time of the discovery of the body. He had repeatedly stated in the last two or three weeks that he was getting too old to work and there was no use struggling any longer.

A telegram was received last night stating that J. L. Johnson, of Aberdeen, Wash., a son-in-law, was on his way here and ordering that the body be prepared for shipment to Ontario.

Mr. Gillis was a man who was his own only enemy and one who had many friends among the employes of the foundry where he had worked for many years.

BROUGHT FOR BURIAL

Remains of Mrs. J. D. Munroe Were Brought Here from Hibbing for Burial Beside her Husband

The remains of Mrs. J. D. Munroe, who died at Hibbing Friday, were received here Sunday and were laid at rest beside the remains of her husband Monday morning after services at St. Francis Catholic church. Several children of the deceased accompanied the body. The death of Mrs. Munroe recalls the tragic fate of her husband who was accidentally shot while tending target at the rifle range west of town on the 24th of October, 1887. The family left here a few years later but brought the mother here to be buried beside her husband.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Frank Mahara's Minstrels
For over four hours last night Frank Mahara's Minstrels entertained an audience that filled the Wheeler from pit to dome and during that time were treated to mirth, melody and skill seldom witnessed here.

This is undoubtedly the best colored organization that has ever appeared here and they gave a performance that does credit to their race.

The first part was handsomely staged and the singing, especially the quartette work, was melodious. The jokes were all new ones and the end men extremely funny.

The second part was replete with high class specialties. Among those deserving of special mention were L. Bland in his Indian character work, James Harris in his marvelous hoop rolling and John Pamplin in his feats of juggling. The latter performed feats that at times were thrilling in the extreme and held the audience breathless by his wonderful performance. This feature alone was well worth the price of admission and will long be remembered.

This is the first performance of this company in Aspen but they will be assured of a fine reception should they pay the city another visit at any time. —Democrat, Aspen, Col., Oct. 16, 1906. At opera house Wednesday, July 24th.

At The Bijou

Manager Low of the "Bijou" is certainly exerting every effort to give the patrons of his house a good bill each week, as he promises another show of great merit for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, as a headliner he is presenting "Western Justice" a companion piece of the "Montana Girls." It is expected that this will be a big drawing card at the popular little play house.

To Water Consumers

Patrons should remember that lawn and garden sprinkling is allowed only between the hours of 6 and 9 a. m. and 6 and 9 p. m. Parties violating this rule or using water for sprinkling without permit will be shut off without further notice. This action is made necessary by the abuse of the privilege and the limited pumping capacity of the plant.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

A petition was presented to the city council asking that the land across the right of way on Fifth street be condemned and the street opened. A resolution to that effect was passed and City Attorney Fernald being the attorney for the Northern Pacific Leon E. Lum was retained to look after the matter for the city.

W. S. Hill will erect a brick bakery at the corner of Main and Ninth street.

The county board of equalization is having a hard wrestle with the assessment rolls.

Jack Smith will open a barber shop in the Commercial hotel as soon as the improvements are completed.

A juvenile sewing society was entertained by Miss Nellie Merritt at her home on Main street last Sunday afternoon. All enjoyed a very pleasant time.

L. E. Lum now holds the belt as being the champion checker player of the city, the series of games having been completed, resulting in ten games for Lum, nine for McCullum and ten draw.

S. F. Alderman and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Alderman have been rustivating at Sylvan lake this week.

Father Vaudry, who is studying law at Little Falls, will soon go to Baltimore. The reverend Father will rival Bill Irwin if he is admitted to the bar.

A pointer was given the reporter last night on the new hose house site. Don't give it away, but the location has been fixed for Sixth street, on the site formerly occupied by J. J. Gardner's store.

An important transfer last week was the sale of D. D. Smith's grocery store to Keene & Nevers. These gentlemen are well known to Brainerd and will undoubtedly to a thriving business as they are popular and reliable.

The Seventh street property owners are up in arms and propose to have their street opened if the Fifth street project succeeds.

A pleasant surprise party called on Prof. Wilson at his residence last Saturday evening. The occasion was to show the gentleman that a good majority of the people of the city appreciated the services that he had rendered in bringing the schools to their present high standing. During the evening Mrs. Wilson was presented with a gold watch, Justin Smith doing the honors.

RHODES BUILDING BURNED

The Building Occupied by J. H. Rhodes and L. W. Burrell Destroyed by Fire Sunday

The steel sheathed building on Laurel street, just east of J. W. Koop's block was destroyed by fire Sunday morning. The alarm was given by Officer Hurley, who discovered it while passing through the alley. The fire boys responded promptly, and by hard work saved the other wooden buildings standing near it. When first discovered the fire was in the northwest corner of the building. The building was locked when the fire was discovered and it is thought the fire was caused by the spontaneous combustion of something used in the paint shop occupying that portion of the building. The building was owned by Leon E. Lum and was occupied by J. H. Rhodes with his wagon and paint shop and by L. W. Burrell, with his blacksmith shop. Several valuable buggies which were being repainted and a new launch owned by Carl Wright, which was waiting for its engine, were in the building at the time and were totally destroyed.

The building is said to have been worth about $800 and was insured for $500. Mr. Rhodes had about $2,000 worth of materials and tools in the building which were insured for $500. M. Burrell had about $1,200 worth of tools and stock, carrying only $250 in insurance. The amount of his loss is hard to estimate as the loss is not total.

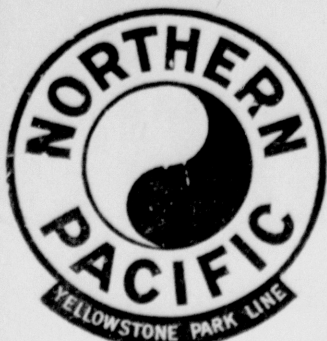

Much credit is given the fire department for confining the flames to that building as there were several frame buildings in close proximity to it.

MRS. FAIRBANKS INJURED.

Wife of Vice President in an Auto Accident.

Amsterdam, N. Y., July 20.—Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, wife of the vice president, and other members of an automobile party were in an accident twenty-five miles west of here, but all escaped without serious injury. The loss of a tire dented their machine.

Mrs. Fairbanks, accompanied by her sons, Frederick and Robert, and Frederick's wife, has been taking an automobile trip which began at Indianapolis and was to have continued to Boston, but which, owing to the accident, ended at Fort Plain. The party proceeded by rail to Boston.

While moving at a good speed half way between St. Johnsville and Fort Plain, a rear tire came off, causing the large touring car to swerve toward a ditch and throwing its occupants with considerable force into the roadway. All were roughly shaken up and more or less bruised, but none sustained serious injuries. The machine was badly damaged, but after temporary repairs had been made the party was able to continue to Fort Plain, where the car was left for a general overhauling.

KNOCKS OUT FITZSIMMONS

Jack Johnson Quickly Disposes of the Old Pugilistic Star.

Philadelphia, July 18.—Jack Johnson stopped Bob Fitzsimmons in the second round of a six round boxing bout before the Washington Sporting club in this city. Fitzsimmons did not show a trace of his former prowess and it is believed that Johnson could have stopped him in the opening round if he had cared to do so. The blow that put Fitzsimmons out was a light right to the jaw. The old man fell to the floor and as he made no attempt to rise, the referee stopped the bout. The hissing that usually follows knockouts of this character was absent, the spectators evidently taking compassion on the former pugilistic star.

Referee Keenan refused to act in the ring, because he had heard that Fitzsimmons had a badly sprained arm. The manager of the club then entered the ring and watched the uneven match.

In the opening round Johnson tapped Fitzsimmons when and where he pleased, but the latter was unable to land his famous counters.

AGAINST TERRIBLE ODDS.

Midshipman Cruz Making a Gallant Fight for Life.

Boston, July 19.—Midshipman James Cruz, one of the sailors injured by the accident on the battleship Georgia on Monday, is making a gallant fight for life against terrible odds in the naval hospital at Chelsea. Buoyed up by the presence of his father, Major Thomas Cruz of Omaha, the midshipman seemed to have a slight turn for the better. With a pulse of 105 and a temperature of 106, however, it is only his marvelous courage that has kept Cruz alive.

Seaman Louis O. Meese also showed a slight improvement, retaining some nourishment, but his condition still is regarded as extremely serious.

There is little change in the condition of the other men. Seamen J. A. Bush, Harold R. Gilbert, Joseph P. Thomas and John C. Maleck are still on the critical list, with hopes of recovery.

ROCKEFELLER ON GOLF.

Oil King Gets Enthusiastic and Speaks Highly of Egan's Play.

John D. Rockefeller, who has attended the amateur championship golf tournament on the Euclid links at Cleveland, O., every day, has grown enthusiastic over the different plays and players. He followed H. Chandler Egan the other day, and a stenographer followed him, taking down his conversation verbatim, says a Cleveland dispatch to the New York Tribune. It was printed as follows:

"I have long been a devotee of the game of golf. I thoroughly believe there is no sport in existence which does so much to develop in man his best traits of character. It brings out all that is good in him and kills off the bad. It promotes right living, and, after all, that is the one thing we must all work to bring about.

"Egan is in perfect form today. Look at that splendid drive from the second tee. There it goes on to the green, only a few feet from the flag. Fine work!

"Did you see how easy he made his swing? Not a bit of wasted effort. The carry through was splendid, and this is what gives him the distance. He has caution in every shot that he takes. He plans just what he expects to do, and then he has the nerve and the skill to make his plan successful. He entirely lacks one of the greatest faults of most of our golfers. He never takes his eye off the ball. I like his face. His eye is clear and his hand steady. He has self control. You do not see him lose his temper when he is unfortunate enough to get into difficulty. His play out of trouble is marvelous. Now he is about to try for that difficult put. I wish people would not talk at such a time. There is nothing that so disconcerts a player as talking when he is about to make a shot. Golf etiquette demands absolute silence at such a time.

"Mr. Egan has remarkable judgment as to distance and direction. See that shot, for instance. It was a perfect approach. He uses irons as well as any one I have ever seen play. He has a difficult put for a three. It will be too bad if he misses. Oh, that was magnificent! He has dropped his ball twenty feet from the hole. There, he has missed a three foot put by two inches. But that was not lack of skill. He was unfortunate.

"There's a beautiful drive. See that brassie on the green in two. He has a ten foot put to be at bogie. Hurrah, he made it! That was great. You do not know how pleased I am."

During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. H. P. Dunn & Co. mwfdw

THIRTY-ONE WERE KILLED

And Eight Others May Die as Result of a Wreck.

Detroit, July 22.—The death list as a result of the collision near Salem between a Pere Marquette excursion train and a freight train now stands at thirty-one, but among the 100 injured in this city and Ionia, eight are reported to be in serious condition and not out of danger. There are sixteen injured people at their homes in Ionia and forty-two were brought to the hospitals in this city for treatment. Of the long list of suffering persons at Ionia but one, Mrs. M. Durling, whose husband and son were killed, is reported as in a dangerous condition. Seven of the injured in the local hospitals are not yet out of danger. They are:

Banner Hughes, concussion of the brain, cuts about the head; Mrs. Catherine Selbach, aged fifty-eight, fractured ribs and internal injuries; John B. Anderson, fractured skull, fractured leg and internal injuries; Abraham Eddy suffering from shock of wife's death; William Beals, leg and back injured; Mrs. Nellie Dalsen, spine injured, and Mrs. Catherine Smith, skull injured. All are residents of Ionia.

Sunday was a day of grief and mourning in the little city of Ionia, which is located 130 miles west of Detroit. Mayor John N. Bible says he estimates that one in every five of the city's inhabitants was either killed or injured in the wreck. All night members of a citizens' committee which was appointed when the extent of the catastrophe was realized, were at work visiting the homes of the dead and injured and arranging for medical attention where it was necessary. All of the city's normal activities have practically been suspended and everyone is devoting attention to the wreck victims. One of the most pathetic cases of suffering is the Haas family, which lost its father and two sons. They were the breadwinners and a widow and six children are left nearly destitute.

Not until Sunday was the identity of all the dead positively established and an accurate list made up.

FARMER RUNS AMUCK

Kills His Son, His Wife and Her Foster Father.

SHOT DOWN BY A NEIGHBOR

Murderer Is Killed While Attempting to Attack Another Man—Became Demented and Wiped Out His Family With an Axe.

Nunica, Mich., July 22.—Henry Scutcheon, a farmer about fifty years old, living near this village, ran amuck with an axe, killing his invalid son, his wife and her foster father.

Scutcheon was later shot by Henry McClellan, a neighbor, whom the crazed murderer had also attacked. The dead are:

Henry Scutcheon, Polly Scutcheon, his wife; Day Scutcheon, his eighteen-year-old son; George Anning, Mrs. Scutcheon's foster father.

The Scutcheon farmhouse had apparently always been a happy one, except for the cloud which the son's invalidism cast over the family.

With no warning so far as known Scutcheon suddenly attacked his son with an axe. He crushed the boy's head frightfully. When his wife interposed he turned on her and pursued the screaming woman from their house to the road, where he knocked her down with his weapon. He then rushed back to the house and murdered his foster father-in-law.

Next he tried to kill himself. He gashed his throat and wrists with a razor and took some Paris green. His wounds did not weaken him and the poison did not take immediate effect. With axe in hand, he returned to the road where he had felled his wife a few moments before. The first blow had not killed her and she had been carried into the house of Henry McClellan near by. McClellan rushed to another neighbor for help.

Again Attacked His Wife.

When Scutcheon found that his wife was in the McClellan home alive, he smashed a window with his axe, tumbled through it and again attacked her. This time he crushed her skull. He then left the McClellan house, but when Mr. McClellan returned from his search for help, the crazed man came out and started over toward him, saying "I want you, too." "I will shoot you if you cross the road," replied McClellan, who had armed himself with a shotgun. Despite the warning, Scutcheon came across. McClellan thereupon shot him dead.

Although McClellan fired both barrels of his shotgun into the crazed man's chest, Scutcheon lived for an hour. Coroner Kakey of Grand Haven, who examined the body, says that he believes it was the wounds Scutcheon inflicted on his own wrists which killed him. As he lay writhing on the ground after he had been shot and neighbors had found him, Scutcheon talked about his neighbor, making statements that he watered his milk. It is said he brooded over the death of two of his children and also on the fact that his neighbors were down on him.

TWO RAILROAD MEN KILLED

Buried Under Coal From Overturned Tender and Suffocated.

Sebewaing, Mich., July 22.—In the second wreck on the Pere Marquette railroad in twenty-four hours, two trainmen were killed near here. The engine drawing an extra freight train on the Saginaw, Tuscola and Huron division with its tender and one car was ditched by running through an open interlocking derailing device and Albert J. Kelly, conductor, and John O'Leary, engineer, both residents of Saginaw, were buried under the coal from the overturned tender and suffocated. Brakeman Dearing and Fireman McGinnis were also in the cab when the engine left the rails, but strangely enough saved themselves by not jumping. Kelly and O'Leary tumbled into the ditch when they felt the engine leaving the rails and were buried under the coal.

PEACE CONFERENCE.

Important Meeting of the Tribunal at The Hague.

The Hague, July 19.—The sitting of the peace conference Thursday was one of the most important yet held for interest in the questions discussed as well as for the powerful speeches delivered by Joseph H. Choate of the United States, Luis M. Drago of Argentina and Perez Triani of Colombia, while in addition Spain made a declaration that attracted much attention as reflecting the desire of the Spanish government to assume a kind of moral tutelage over the Latin-American countries.

Spain's declaration says that that country adheres to the principles of moderation, which inspired the American proposition, limiting force for the collection of public debts, these being the principles that the government and the king have followed and will always follow.

HEAVY LOSS FROM FIRE.

John Wanamaker's Stables and Other Property Burned.

Philadelphia, July 22.—The stables on John Wanamaker's estate, Lyndenhurst, near Jenkintown, a suburb, have been destroyed by fire, entailing a loss estimated at $100,000. Lyndenhurst, Mr. Wanamaker's country home, was destroyed by fire February last, causing a loss of nearly $2,000,000.

After that fire valuable paintings, bronzes, statues and bric-a-brac were stored in the stables. The paintings had since been removed, but many articles remained.

When the flames were discovered a fire apparatus from this city and companies from near by suburban towns were hurried to the scene, but the fire had made such headway that nothing could be saved.

The stables were built when Lyndenhurst was erected and were magnificently equipped. Three horses were burned in their stalls and the loss on the building and contents is estimated at $50,000. The value of articles from Lyndenhurst that were in the barn is estimated at $50,000.

Fred Magill and Wife Leave California for Illinois.

San Diego, Cal., July 22.—Sheriff Campbell of Dewitt county, Illinois, has left for Clinton, Ill., accompanied by Fred Magill and the latter's wife, who go to face the charge of murdering Mrs. Pet Magill of Clinton.

It was learned that Miss Margaret Magill, daughter of the accused man, has arrived in Clinton. Her departure from this city two or three days ago was kept a close secret.
